Crafters invited to the 9th Annual Oktoberfest Festival at the Ramona Humane Society

October 17, 2009

9:00am -4:00pm

The Ramona Humane Society, located in the San Jacinto/Hemet area, will be holding its 9th annual Oktoberfest Festival for the community to participate in various family activities and purchase crafts from local vendors. Local newspapers, media and businesses will be promoting this community event. Last year we had over 5,000 visitors.

If you would like to participate in this community event, complete the entry form below. There are no booth rental fees; however a donation to the shelter would be greatly appreciated. All booth spaces are 10' x 10' and will be outdoors. No electricity will be available and vendors are to provide their own tables, chairs and shade covers. Sorry, no food vendors allowed.

Set up time is from 6:30am - 8:30am. All vendor booths must be up and running by 9:00am. Oktoberfest activities commence promptly at 9:00am. For more information, contact Laura Scott, Animal Services Manager, Ramona Humane Society at (951) 654-8002 ext. 235.
